

ABOUT THE SHOW

LAURITZEN GARDENS ANTIQUE & GARDEN SHOW

The Lauritzen Gardens Antique & Gardens Show celebrates its 10th anniversary of bringing renowned experts in antiques, gardening, and various fields of design and art to Omaha. The show's three days are filled with educational experiences and of course fabulous and affordable shopping opportunities. Under the leadership of our honorary chairmen Cindy Bay and Mary Seina the show has grown in stature to become one of the region's most anticipated events.

- The show benefits Lauritzen Gardens. In the past decade the show has hosted more than 40,000 people and to date has raised more than $3.8 million to benefit the garden.
- The regional appeal of this event continues to grow. The show reaches a broad audience drawing from a six state area including Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, South Dakota and Colorado.
- The show offers a one-of-a-kind collector's experience not found elsewhere in the region. Showcasing more than 30 exhibitor booths, the show represents both international and domestic dealers. Beautiful and affordable examples of museum quality antiques ranging from porcelain, silver, jewelry, oriental rugs, paintings, and finely crafted furniture will be featured at the show.
- The 10th anniversary weekend is packed with a wonderful lineup of events starting on Thursday with an evening Patron Preview Party, continuing with lectures and luncheons on both Friday and Saturday and ending the weekend with a Sunday lecture and book signing.
- On Sunday guests are invited to bring their heirlooms and antiques to the "What's it Worth?" Appraisal Clinic for a verbal appraisal from one of the nation's premier appraisers of antiques and fine art.
- Past luncheon lecturers include: Thomas Jayne, Alessandra Branca, Coleen Christian Burke, Charlotte Moss, Suzanne Rheinstein, Alexa Hampton, Barry Dixon, Bunny Williams, P. Allen Smith, Lady Henrietta Spencer-Churchill, Carleton Varney, the Keno Brothers, Charles Faudree, Jay Strongwater, Sheila Chavetz, Judith Miller, Jeffrey Bilhuber.
